

AreionSail Terms and Conditions

- 1. The skipper can decide at any time to change the sailing trip/route or to stop the trip if there is any reason to worry about the safety of a passenger/passengers.
- 2. If there is any reason why you can not participate in the booked sailing trip you can change the date or you can let another person go in your place.
- 3. Any passenger that participates in the sailing trips does so entirely at their own risk. During your time on board and including embarking and disembarking the vessel, everything will be done to ensure your safety and well being. However it is every passengers responsibility to pay attention to safety briefings and acquaint themselves with all safety measures on board. AreionSail can not be held responsible for injures, damage, illness, or behaviour of others. We strongly recommend you that you have travel/medical insurance.
- 4. On board there is no insurance against fire, theft, lost or (water)damage. Claims considering these subjects are excluded.
- 5. It is expected of every passenger that participates on a sailing trip with AreionSail or partners that you will conduct yourself in fitting and appropriate manner to not cause damage or danger to fellow passengers. Abusive behaviour to other passengers or AreionSail staff will result in the removal of the offender at the nearest point ashore. Any expenses incurred for repatriation will be met by the offender.
- 6. Even though you are sailing with a skipper there is expected to be at least one person of your company with a knowledge of sailing and accepts the responsibility to help the skipper if necessary.
- 7. By booking a sailing trip you confirm that you have read the terms and conditions and that you agree.
