

AreionSail general conditions

- 1. The skipper can decide at any time to change the sailing trip/ route or to stop the trip if there is any reason to worry about the safety of a passenger / passengers.
- 2. If there is any reason why you can not participate in the booked sailing trip you can change the date or you can let another person go in your place.
- 3. The passenger participates at his / her own risk. There will be done anything to warrant the safety and wellness of the passengers. Even though, the passenger is responsible for himself / herself and must keep the for himself / herself necessary safety measures. AreionSail can not be kept responsible for injures, damage, illness, or behaviour of others. We recommend you that you have travel and medical insurance.
- 4. On board there is no insurance against fire, theft, lost or (water)damage. Claims considering these subjects are excluded.
- 5. Of every participant we expect that he / she will behave decently and not cause danger or damage to belongings or irritation to other passengers and Areion staff.
- 6. Even though you are sailing with a skipper there is expected to be at least one person of your company with a knowledge of sailing and accepts the responsibility to help the skipper if necessary.
- 7. By signing this form you confirm that you have read the conditions and that you agree.

Signature participant: